“ Betty was a cousin to me, by marriage, but I always called her, Aunt Betty. My parents left Amsterdam in 1954, and after I grew up--I began making pilgrimages back to my roots down in that beautiful valley. During those times, I visited Betty many times, and we had a lot of fun searching the Allensworth family tree. She was the last of that generation of our family. She spent summers in Amsterdam at her log-cabin next to my great-grandparents farm (Allensworth Farm). As the family story goes, the log cabin originally belonged to Arda Morton Allensworth, uncle to my Dad and to Margo's Dad-- Great Uncle to us. Uncle Arda bought the old Steubenville PostOffice, and he and my Dad took it apart and hauled it, in my Dad's coal truck, over where it sits today. They reassembled it. Years later, it was added on to. Sending prayers and love to Margo and family. Sincerely, ShariLee Beynon.

“ *My sympathy to Margot, Bob and family members in the passing of Bidy. I wish we had all got to be together again one more time. I have such wonderful memories of coming to Aunt Ada and Uncle Rob's farm and even have pictures of those wonderful times. I was blessed to have been a part of all your lives.
Your cousin, Donna Elliott Cerullo (Frances Swickard Elliott's grand daughter.)*
