“ Kendall and family, I'm so sorry to read of the loss of your mom. I fondly remember visiting her during the holidays when she was in full baking mode. Her cookies were the best (I still make them). Please keep the memories close to your hearts. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

I am so sorry about your mom.

My fondest memories was helping your mom do corn in the summer and make progies and always help her with clean up after Thanksgiving or Christmas meal.

Lisa & families,

You have my sympathy.

Betty taught me so much besides cooking at the airport. I got to help prep and open up with her for several years before finishing college and moving on to other jobs. What an excellent teacher, baker and cook.

Always a smile and an encouraging word.

Cherish the memories.
