“ Sad that we haven't kept in touch like we should. We all seem to go our separate ways. Grandma Pittman kept our family together with the family reunions. I remember going to my Uncle Bills as a kid. And Bill would be in his room writing music or playing. He always reminded me of John Boy on the Walton's. Always so pleasant. I have lost out not staying touch but the last fees months we had connected. I wish it had been sooner. Prayers for his immediate family.

Just like Michelle, I have not kept in touch with the family as much as I would have liked. And how I miss those family reunions at Grandma Pittman's. I looked forward to them every year and have recently been going through all the wonderful pictures I have from the reunions. I hate that we all live so far away from each other. I did get to see Billy when I drove Mom and Dad to visit Uncle Bill shortly before he died. I cherish the pictures I have from that visit of Dad with his brother Bill. A sad time for the Pittman families these last couple of weeks. The death of Bill and my brother, Kenneth Wayne Pittman, was exactly one week apart. And then Aunt Roxie in between them. Please know that all of you are in my prayers. Heaven has its hand full with that many Pittmans together!!!! And we all were so blessed to be a part of that family.
