“ I have cut his hair for a long time and the best thing was he was so hard of hearing and so loud when he talked that when he would lean in to tell me something so everyone else didn't hear it ,his voice was still louder than everyone else in the shop and they all heard anyway 😭 Great man and will be greatly missed !!

“ There was only one Whitey! One always knew he was present because on most occasions you needed ear plugs. He knew only one volume when talking—Loud! He loved to celebrate, especially on the holidays. His mixes were way too strong for me but I loved that huge box of candy he always sent to my brother. He will be missed!
