“ Dale Dowdell, probably my favorite cousin. Thinking back of good times sled riding down the hill by his house. Walking on the railroad tracks to town or going to visit Junius Yealey across the tracks to fly a kite in his pasture (65 years ago, seems like yesterday). Dale taught me to ride a bicycle by launching off the front porch and then wobbly circling the yard.

Dale donated his paper boy job to me for the Canton Repository when he took another "real job"

Rest in peace "Cuz".
