“ I'll treasure my memories of our high schools days. From hitting skunks to disco lights to trick-or-treating in East Springfield, the laugh box from Spencer's and cruising town. Rest easy my friend until I see you again .

“ Although we had been so far apart son some years, we were still close as cousins. I will miss your silliness and love over the years. We had so much fun as kids running those hills and playing with the ponies and dogs up on Mawmaw's and Pawpaw's place. Until we see each other again.
