“ You took great care of both your parents , you are an amazing care giver, selflessly giving up your ambitions and opportunities to care for your Dad. You are a strong women. Your Dad was very proud of you. You have his keen business sense and compassion for the underprivileged. It's your legacy to carry on the family business and some sweet day when you are reunited with your Mom and Dad and Our Father you will hear them all say , “ good job , my faithful servant “It was a privilege to know your Dad and he is indeed resting in peace . Love ya , my dear friend!
