

Dexter Charles Kaltenbach

October 31, 1941 - April 18, 2024

Dexter Charles “Bunk” Kaltenbach was born in Chillicothe, Ohio, on October 31, 1941, to the late James and Evelyn (Carnes) Kaltenbach. He is survived by his wife of 24 years, Margie Toot Kaltenbach; two daughters, Kelley (Jim) Busch of Chillicothe, and Nikki (Victor) Hollis of Key West, Florida; Margie’s children whom he cared for like his own, Mindy Jones (Todd “Chip”) Weiland of Dellroy, and Aaron (Carisa) Jones of Dellroy; grandchildren Jeff (Ashley) Ritchie, Alex Grow, Megan Grow, Kirsten Markey, and Jack Busch; Margie’s grandchildren Brice, Regan, and Coby Weiland, whom he was proud carried on the tradition of serving in the US Navy, and Bray Jones; three great-grandchildren; and sisters-in-law Janet (Tom) Kaltenbach, Barb (Jayme Walker) Toot and Shirley (Marty) Kamban.

Along with his parents he was preceded in death by his brothers, Tom and Michael Kaltenbach, and his sister, Patricia Mavis Smith.

Dexter graduated from Chillicothe’s Catholic Central High School in 1959, then served in the US Navy. He returned to Chillicothe and married Judy Lewis, with whom he raised their daughters. He worked at the Mead Paper Company, then began his career with the United States Postal Service, serving as a union steward before he entered management training and worked his way up to postmaster. He retired as postmaster of Wheelersburg, Ohio, after 25 years with the USPS.

After Dexter’s retirement, the next chapter of his life took him to Northeast Ohio, specifically Baltic and Carrollton, where he became part of the Toot family. He attended St. Mary's of Morges Catholic Church. He could often be found golfing at Oak Shadows Golf Course and traveled to Florida on annual trip with the Kohler golf group.

He loved sports of all kinds, both as participant and spectator. He loved watching his children, nieces and nephews participate in athletics, and then watched their children play sports as well. He often went to the Ohio High School basketball and football state playoffs with his brothers. When he wasn't watching sports, he was golfing, riding his motorcycle, skiing, or boating and waterskiing with family.

As a member of the Chillicothe Elks Lodge, he served as an officer before moving away from Chillicothe and becoming a member of the New Philadelphia lodge.
