

Dianne Newell

October 15, 1950 - March 30, 2020

Dianne Newell, 69, of Canton, passed away Monday afternoon March 30, 2020 at Hanover House in Massillon.

Born October 15, 1950 in Canton, she was a daughter of Julia Newell of Carrollton and the late Dale Newell.

As a young adult Dianne moved to California and pursued an Associate's Degree in Landscaping from San Diego City College. She received her contractor's license after passing the exam in her first attempt, an accomplishment that her father was very proud of. She became the first female landscaper for the City of San Diego, California.

Along with her mother she is survived by her daughter, Michelle Morin of Orange County, California; three brothers, Daniel (Luanne) Newell of Marriottsville, Maryland, Gerald Newell of Minerva, Dennis (Cyndi) Newell of Lakeside, California; a sister, Linda (Paul) Cogan of Carrollton; and many nieces and nephews.

In the interest of public health a private graveside service has taken place.
