“ John I am so sorry for your loss. I remember Dee as always being around. Playing cards and listening to music, maybe even dancing in the living room. Great memories of high school and all the great times with your family. Blessings to you.

Dianne was my stepdaughter DeeDee she called me a while back and thanked me for teaching her so much when I was raising her I was so very surprised and sad that we had lost so many years after so much time not spent together. She was a beautiful young lady and I am so sad to see her life cut off so short. I love you, honey. May you rest in peace.
