

Edna Lash

May 13, 1918 - September 26, 2012

Edna Lash, 94, of Carrollton went home to be with the Lord, September 26, 2012 after a lengthy illness. She was born on May 13, 1918, in Stark County, daughter of the late Herman and Mary Katzenberger Scharr. She married Harvey L. Lash on June 13, 1941. He passed away December 26, 1998. She was a member of the Carrollton Baptist Temple and a member of the Gideons since 1955. She was a member of the volunteer group Sowers ("Servants on Wheels Ever Ready") from 1984-1998. She dearly loved her family and their many activities. She enjoyed entertaining, attending church and serving others. She was known for her crocheting, embroidery, baking and flowers; all of which garnered her many ribbons at the Carroll County Fair. She was preceded in death by her husband, and daughter, Betty Hanlon; son-in-law, Jim Moore Sr.; and by her three sisters, Lora Steinbach, Ann Anderson, and Effie Hampton. She is survived by two sons and daughters-in-law, Wayne and Diane Lash of Wooster, and Dale and Cheryl Lash of Haslet, Texas; one daughter, Karen (Jim, Sr.) Moore of Carrollton; one sister, Betty (Marv) Norris of Bradenton, Florida; ten grandchildren, Saralyn Lash, Megan (Aaron) Taylor, Kevin (Katrina) Moore, Kenny (Amanda) Moore, Karl (Erica) Moore, Jennifer (Jesse) Haas, Bobbie Jo (Dale) Tinlin, Bethanie (Chet) Peters, Derek Lash, and Kristen (John) Buchannan; and seventeen great-grandchildren, Haevyn and Kallah Taylor, Grayson, Alaina, and Madalyn Moore, Mackena and Brennan Shaver, Kendyl Moore, Brennen and Brody Moore, Orenda and Jaylyn Haas, Brandie Jo Tinlin, Lane and Sage Peters, and Landon and Logan Lash. Funeral services will be Saturday, September 29, 2012 at 11:00 a.m. in the Carrollton Baptist Temple with Pastor David Powell officiating. Burial will be in Westview Cemetery. Friends may call Friday from 1-3 and 6-8 p.m. at Sweeney-Dodds Funeral Home in Carrollton. In lieu of flower, she requested that memorial contributions be made to the Carrollton Baptist Temple or to the Gideons International.
