“ I just loved meeting up with Erma Jane! Our last visit was a couple of years ago on her front porch, talking, having a refreshment, and her waving at her neighbors as they drove by on their errands.

I knew Erma through two connections: one, when she worked at the Malvern location of Peacock Cleaners, and two, when Buck would be at the Algonquin Mill with Mike Mangan. (Mike and I were together several years. We double dated with them once...what fun!)

I believe surely she made many positive differences in our world by her cheeriness and hard work. I'm glad to have known her (and Buck).

To her family, friends, and "her guy", I offer my sympathy. She spoke openly her gratitude of you all. No doubt she will be missed. Peace be with each of you.
