

Evelyn L. Youngen

October 25, 1947 - August 10, 2015

With a humble spirit and a heart full of gold, Evelyn Youngen left her home here on earth on Monday, August 10, 2015, to be with our LORD. Her kindness and patience was the steady love that held her family together. Whether among family and friends, or even her clients, Evelyn was a quiet voice who lifted the spirits of all who knew her and she helped and inspired them to be and to look their very best.

Evelyn was the caring wife of Ron Youngen for more than 40 years, and she was the encouraging mother of Angela Youngen and Charles (Nicole) Youngen.

Evelyn was the previous owner of the Hair Gallery and was actively involved in the family farm.

She is preceded in death by her father Lawrence Heid, her mother Esther Roby and her brother Larry Heid. She is also survived by her sisters: Gloria Medley, Kathy Host, Lila Peplinski, and Karen Rutledge.

The calling hours will be held on Thursday, August 13th from 5:00-8:00 pm at Dodds Funeral home in Carrollton, OH. The celebration of her life will occur on Friday, August 14th at 11:00 am at Dodds Funeral home.

The family requests that gifts in her memory can be given to Trinity Gospel Temple, 1612 Tuscarawas Street West, Canton, OH 44708 or <https://www.egsnetwork.com/gift/gift.php>

“ As one of hundreds of people Evelyn's daughter Angie Youngen has touched so deeply here in Washington, DC, please accept my deepest sympathies. I never had the pleasure of meeting Evelyn, but I know for certain that much of the kindness, unwavering strength and faith in God that define her daughter Angie came from her mom. My heart goes out to your entire family. Rest in peace, Evelyn.
