“ To the Nevolo Family: I wish to extend my sincere and deepest condolences to you for the loss of Sr. Frances. I knew her as Sr. Bernard back in the late 60's. My Dad was former Sheriff Elmer E. Albaugh. He asked to chaperone one of the students to a dance for Home of the Good Shepherd at Oglebay Park's Pine Room when I was in college. Her name was Jody Martin from Circleville Ohio outside of Columbus. I think she ended up marrying a doctor. Lucky her. Sr. Bernard was strict but fair and highly intelligent. I often wondered what became of her after she left Wheeling. She was a kind and wonderful person. Denny Albaugh
