

George "Butch" Kinsey Jr.

July 18, 1942 - July 5, 2009

George B. "Butch" Kinsey Jr., 66, of Andora Road Carrollton, following a lingering illness peacefully joined his wife, Nova M. after five weeks apart. Born in Augusta, he was the son of George B. and Lorena Reeder Kinsey. He was a life long resident of Carroll County, having worked at Minerva Welding, American Good Roads, and The Minerva Dairy. He retired from Republic-LTV and enjoyed taking care of his lawn and home. He is survived by his mother, Lorena Kinsey of Pattersonville; a brother, Fred (Barb) Parks of Tooele, UT; two sisters, Kay (David) Evans of Minerva and Judy Gantz of Hanoverton; two sons, George W. of Little Elm, TX and Robert (Trudy) of Houma, LA; four daughters, Deb (Ben) Prather of Lisbon, Teresa (Wayne) Potts of Lowell, MI, Laura (Tim) McNutt of Carrollton, Sonia Reed of Centerville, VA; six grandchildren; and five great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife, Nova; his father; and a son, Ronald. There will be a memorial service for Butch and Nova at a later date.

“ I will fondly remember my cousin Butch as I was growing up and we would go the farm to visit and at the family gatherings,my heart breaks that another cousin of mine has died but I'm sure uncle george was happy to be reunited with his son and so was cousin Butch's wife and son. Prayers are with all you.
