“ Jerry Snyder was a special person and coach. My youngest daughter played summer softball for him and he was always upbeat and supportive of all the girls. He always had each of the girls best interests in mind. Thank you for all you did for the boys and girls of Carrollton. Jerry will be missed.

“ Oh my gosh! I'm so brokenhearted right now. Uncle Jerry I always loved you you always treated me so good.Even as a little girl when I would talk so much and everybody would pick on me he would set me up on your lap. He would talk to me and we would just laugh.Never made me feel like I was a nuisance. You are the perfect smile and the best heart of anybody I knew back then. I love you with all my heart I'm truly going to miss you. Say hi to my family up there.One day I'll be there with you all it'll be a blessed reunion. I always love you from the bottom of my heart. He will dearly be missed. Love you so so much, Lisa Ann
