“ *Mr Hunter was a huge part of my life until I moved away to Georgia but the Brown family has always lived in my heart and my heart is now breaking for them. So many childhood memories of mine was at their house and this man always treated me just like I was one of his girls. In my bedroom I have the pheasant that my daddy shot and Hunter mounted it for him and daddy thought I would want it. So I see it every day when I sit at my vanity and it reminds me of how blessed I was to call this family, my family. Distance has separated us physically but my heart will always have a special place for them. Mrs Linda, Laura and Valerie I am so sorry for your loss of this precious man but know we will all see him again one day. I am sending all my love and prayers to each of you. Yours always,
Tonya*

“ More like a brother than a brother-in-law. One of the most talented men I ever knew. Whether it was playing his guitar, a banjo, or carving out a life like animal, he was good at most anything. I will miss him a lot. rest in peace my friend.

“ Only met Hunter once as we were a long lost family in England, was a pleasure to meet him and Linda, and I came away with a little carved boot which I will remember him by, R.I.P Hunter.
