“ Minnie what you wrote is absolutely beautiful and very true. Our Grandpa may have physically moved on, but he has never left any of us for a second. His love is in every single one of us. Not a word or phrase I can think of does Grandpa justice. He's so much more than can be said.... We are all so lucky to have such a treasured soul so close to our hearts. I pray my family can find peace in this time of hardship. My heart goes out to each of you.....

“ It is heartbreaking to say goodbye to a man who was in the hearts of so many. To the 3 sons and 4 daughters who lost their father, remember a fathers love has no end. He protected you has he watched you grow into the wonderful people you are today, and still he will do the same as he did then, as your Angel heaven. To the eighteen grandchildren who lost their grandpa, remember the good times, the laughter, story's, jokes, Cookouts, fishing trips, and most importantly how much he loved each and every one of you because we truly had THE WORLDS BEST GRANDPA! To the thirteen great grandchildren your time with grandpa was short, but I hope that you will remember the way his face would light up with pure joy when he seen you. You are and always will be his precious babies. To the wife who lost her husband, " you know, to me its all clear: Every one of us his here, All because to people fell in love"
