“ God blessed me with Jim and his family. He was a loving, kind, Catholic friend and shared his family with me when we were on trips to Ireland in 2015, 2016, and 2017. What joy and comfort we shared over Ice cream, breakfast, and early morning Mass in Ireland. Thank you God for Jim!

“ My fondest memories of uncle Pat are from our many chats over tea and pie at grandma Keane's house that took place over several decades. It's amazing how many memories were made around that tiny table in grandma's kitchen!

To my cousins and aunt Margaret....through the sadness, may you celebrate the life well lived and be embraced with fond memories. Sending hugs and prayers.

“ James favorite saying to me was get her done! He made going to work fun for me . He was always watching out for me . If I left a cabinet door open , he say be careful. If I step in a step stool he say watch your self . He loved talking to me about his family and his horse buddy. We shared a laugh everyday. I will miss seeing his face and smile at work.
