“ So many years later remembering the time you helped me write a silly essay in middle school. Teacher said it was so funny! I still have it hidden away someplace. ❤️ You were always super funny and understanding. You were one of my only friends in middle school and I have missed you dearly. It's crazy how so much time can pass, but you still cross my mind often. I know you've never truly left, and for that, I am forever thankful. 🙏
