“ Oh my John how I missed you calls this weekend and tried calling and getting your voicemail. We talked Sat and you said feeling better but Robin and I said go to doctor Monday .Well I waited no call so I drove over today to find out what's up I drove to all the mobile homes didn't see truck I finally saw a Sheriff and he looked up and said John passed. How I cried I just met you this summer at hauling milk and we talked everyday . We are getting ready to head south and I had to see what was up. Robins last word when we talked she was praying that you would be feeling better. Our hearts are heavy and I found where Luke was staying with the Wagner's. How my heart is heavy today but so glad you was not in Semi when the Lord called you home. If Wagner's will give up Luke Robin and I will take him. I told you long ago I'm going to take Luke to Florida he will be back in spring. You just laugh and said he probably will love it but you can't. Our condolences to all his family I know it's not been easy we talked a lot I mean a lot and I will miss his voice. RIP my friend till we meet again in paradise. Dave Robin Geib. Killbuck Ohio. And you just drove thru Killbuck the other nite because 39 had a detour you were rt past my house but it was 2am so close but yet so far my brother in friendship
