

John H. McClain, Jr.

September 17, 1919 - December 3, 2008

John H. McClain, Jr., 89, of Mechanicstown died Wednesday morning December 3, 2008 in the Mercy Medical Center of Canton, Ohio. The son of the late John H. and Mary Ramsey McClain, Sr., he was born September 17, 1919 in Mechanicstown, Ohio. John was a carpenter by trade and enjoyed working with wood personally making and doing things for others. During World War II he served as a pilot in the Navy, training other pilots. He was a member of the Salineville Masonic Lodge, Carrollton VFW, and the Corinth Presbyterian Church in Mechanicstown, where he enjoyed singing in the choir. He is survived by his loving wife, the former Lillian Henderson, whom he married on May 29, 1944. Funeral services will be held Saturday, December 6, 2008 at 11:00 a.m. in the Sweeney-Dodds Funeral Home of Carrollton with Rev. James Rice officiating. Burial will follow in the Scroggsfield Cemetery with full military honors provided by the VFW, DAV, and American Legion. Visitation will be Friday from 2-4 and 6-8 in the funeral home. A Masonic service will be Friday at 7:30 by the Salineville Masonic Lodge.

Tribute Wall

AN

“ To the family and friends of John Mc Clain, At Revelations 21: 3,4 we are told that God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. What wonderful promises from our loving God that can bring us comfort and hope. Sincerely, Angela

---

Angela - January 29, 2015 at 01:09 PM

FF

“ I was able to attend the viewing and the Masonic Service last evening. John had a lot of good friends in various fields of endeavour. I always enjoyed chatting with him about his flying and Testing of the Taylorcrafts. Good luck and God Bless you and the rest of the family. Forrest Barber/ Barber Aricraft and the Taylorcraft Foundation

---

Forrest Barber & family - January 29, 2015 at 01:09 PM