“ So sorry to hear of your loss. My memory of John was a trip to Pooles Market, where I worked. My sister, Sandy was working with me and John came in straight from the barn, smelling of manure. My sister was not used to that smell and took off for the back room to get away from the smell. John just smiled and said "Sometimes that smells like money"! He was right. I'm sure he will be sadly missed. My sympathy to Nancy, Raymond and all the family. God bless you all. Chris Perine Anderson
