“ *Rest now my fallen brother
Lay soft your suffering back
Rest well and forever
Your memory shall not lack*

*Rest your tired hands
Wipe clean your weary brow
Rest with St. Florian
Your spirit now endowed*

*Rest here your breaking heart
We know you gave your all
Rest easy, you've done your part
You've answered your last call*

*Rest knowing that in god we sought
Oh lord, watch over another who just fell
Rest assured your troubled thought
As we ring the final bell.*

“ Jonathon was a Marine, a brother, and most of all a friend. I had the honor of serving with him aboard Camp Lejeune. Although I never had the honor to meet his family I greatly appreciate his family allowing all of us who knew him to be blessed with his presence for the time we had with him. He will be greatly missed by all of us. I do not grieve for you but I grieve with you. Please excuse the Marine in me when I say your raised one hell of a son! He touched the lives of many, many more than what he thought. He took the time with those of us in need and helped is in anyway he could. Powell, your missed dearly brother and I say that with a heavy heart and tears in my eyes, you have no idea the impact you have had on many of us, and I thank you. Rest in Peace brother, watch the gates of Heaven for us.
