

Lela M. Kemerer

July 26, 1914 - February 5, 2015

Lela M. Kemerer 100 of Carrollton Ohio went home to the Lord on Thursday Feb. 5 after a brief stay at Carroll Healthcare. She was preceded in death by her mother, father, 3 sisters, 2 brothers and husband George. She attended Resurrection Lutheran Church in Malvern. She loved being a mother, housewife, and active church member. Her other loves were dancing while George played drums or guitar and listening to barber shop, Dixieland and jazz both at home and attending events with George. As part of the County Extension women's group she learned and enjoyed many crafting hobbies such as hammering and etching aluminum trays, leather crafting, caning chairs, quilting and making both pine cone and nut trees, one of which was requested by the vonTrapp family while they were staying with her father-in-law in Carrollton between performances. In retirement she and George traveled throughout the country visiting friends and family while continuing to attend all the annual Barbershop Conventions and as many Dixieland and jazz festivals as possible. Her life was always one of service to others helping and supporting the band boosters long after her son graduated and pressing and assembling braille Bibles with a group in Paris, Illinois just prior to returning to Carrollton She is survived by her son Alan; granddaughters Aria Long and Valerie (Jimmy) Oakley; and Great grandchildren Dillon, Hunter and Madison Long and Calisia, Sabian and Cynthia Oakley. Memorial service to be held at Resurrection Lutheran Church, Malvern Friday February 13, at 11 AM. In lieu of flowers the family asks that donations be made to Resurrection or the American Cancer Society.
