

Lewis M. Segee

July 19, 1958 - January 12, 2025

Lewis M. Segee, 66, died Sunday, January 12, 2025 at his home in Carrollton, Ohio following a courageous battle with COPD.

He was born July 19, 1958 in Canton, Ohio.

Lewis was a friend to many; he didn't know a stranger. He was the type of person who always had a joke available just to brighten someone's day. He was an avid fan of classic country music.

Lewis worked as head of maintenance for Tuscarawas County mainly at Colonial Manor. He loved the people he worked with and the residents were like family. After leaving there he became a truck mechanic and most recently was a residential maintenance manager.

He is survived by his sons, Howard and Shawn Segee, as well as his daughter, Brenda (Kelly) Wissman. He is further survived by his six grandchildren, Synthia Stanley, Raven Segee, Kage, Skye, Ashe and Cole Wissman. From his grandchildren he was blessed with four great grandchildren. Other surviving family members include his two brothers, John McMahan and Timothy Segee.

Lewis was preceded in death by his mother, Edith Segee, and brothers, Ricky and Jim McMahan, and their sister, Barbera Kandel, also his brother, Richard Segee, one granddaughter, Raine Wissman, and his ex-wife, Bessie Sue Segee.

A memorial visitation for Lewis will be Thursday, January 30, 2025 from 4-6 p.m. in Dodds Funeral Home of Carrollton.

“ I am married to Lew's brother Tim Segee. Tim and I used to visit Lou and Beth when they lived in Dennison, OH. Lew was a long time customer at Quick Chek Foods. I always enjoyed waiting on Lew. He was laughing and telling jokes. I am really sorry to read of his passing. I know what it's like to lose family members, and I have found God to be a huge comfort in times like this. Rest in peace, Lew.
