“ *My thoughts and prayers go out to Lisa's sons, daughters, granddaughters, Fritz, Darlene, Donald, and family, I'm sooo sorry for your loss. I just heard today that Lisa had been ill and had passed away. I remember these kids from the time they were babies. May you find comfort on this sad day and the days to come. “ I have so many memories of Lisa as I had the great privilege of being with her since her birth. She was my best friend, my sister, my playmate, my comrad. We played together since infants, shared clothes and friends and laughs. There are so many memories I have a hard time picking just one but since her diagnosis the day after Easter, we spent two solid weeks together in a hotel room awaiting her approval to get admitted into Hope Lodge. In those two weeks with Mom by our side, we reminisced about all the times we had, we talked, we laughed, we cried, we refreshed our sister connection. She told me that having me by her side made cancer less scary because I took her mind off of it. This made me realize my purpose in her life. I will always be grateful for those two weeks with her. They were a wonderful gift from God. Her last text to me on the day that she died she said "Thank you for loving me." That was her way, always thanking me for something when I should be thanking her for being the amazing beautiful person she always was. I miss you so much Lisa Jeanine Went. Rest in peace my dear sweet sister until I see you again.

“ Oh my, where to start when it comes to a special woman like Lisa. She will forever be my second mom. I loved her dearly, & cared about her just as much. There wasn't a person she couldn't make friends with. Caring & loving, so caring & loving. A big heart, in a small woman. Her hugs & kisses would heal your broken heart/soul, & her 5 star food would heal your hunger pains. It always made you wanting more, that's for sure. She treated all kids, like her own kids, & was always there for me. There will never be enough words to express how amazing Lisa was as a friend & a mother. I look forward to the day I get to see you again. I will always love you & miss you, Lisa! ♡♡

“ My home life wasn't the greatest in my sophomore and junior years of high school. However, spending time over at Lisa's house, going camping with her and her kids, were some of the fondest memories I have of those dark years. My most sincere condolences to her family for their loss, and I pray that she's resting easy in eternity <3

“ I remember sitting upstairs in my room, and every day this amazing aroma of smells would fill my room. It was like being taken over by an outside force, dragging me down stairs. To my surprise this wonderful display of gourme quality food spread across the table and huge welcoming smile on my moms face. Usually followed by a "lets dig in". My mother always had a way to make everyone feel happy. The food didn't hurt either that's for sure ^_^ . I love you to the moon and back mom, have a happy journey.
