“ *To the Taczak family, so sorry to hear of aunt Margaret's passing. I can remember the times I would drive by grandma's (Irenes) house and see Margaret's car and would stop and see what they were up to, wether they were going to church or heading to Harrisburg for bingo, but sometimes they were drinking coffee playing rummy, talking about everything. I would sit and listen for hours to stories of growing up on the farm and laughing so hard tears running down there face. What a great family, now all together again ,so giving ,kind and loving .

“ Aunt Margaret was such a fun person, told you exactly what she thought whether you wanted to hear it or not. Was a wonderful cook and her baking was delicious especially her cream horns. So glad I have some of her handwritten recipes. She will be missed. Rest In Peace Aunt Margaret
