“ I remember several years ago when my husband Patrick and I were visiting my Mom and Dad at Bethesda that Aunt Mary Ruth and Aunt Eileen were sitting at the kitchen table and planning to go to Florida and trying to work out something about the trip; it was the funniest thing to listen to and they had us in stitches! Dear Aunt Mary was always so bright and cheery with a sparkle in her eye. I will miss her very much.
Lots of love and prayers to the Bonar family.

“ I remember Aunt Mary years ago standing around with her arms folded in front of her and laughing--Almost always laughing-- saying you kids are going to be in trouble. We usually were from getting into something whether it was Grandpa's butternut stash or eating his bananas.
