“ May Michael rest in peace with the Lord. Our most sincere condolences to his entire family.
Mike was an exemplary husband, father and brother-in-law and Colette and I will miss him.
Mike was the kind of person that would do whatever he could to help others, and if you did him a small favor, he had a way of graciously accepting it, so much so, that you wished that you had done him a larger favor.

I was saddened to learn of the passing of my cousin, Mike. It brought back childhood memories of how my dad (Uncle Stash) always looked forward to our visits to the Pieczynski's so he could play ball with the "boys". Mike was a truly good person with an infectious smile. My condolences to Joanne, children, siblings, and families. Rest in Peace, Cousin Mike.
