*“ Nancy, Your passing is so surreal I just can't believe your really gone. I will always cherish the memories of our camp outs and all the times we sat around the campfire until midnight, and all the special trips you made to come see us when we were camping alone.. Thank you for all time you took just for me to look up and order all the many things you did for me. Your unselfish happy go lucky personality made you a fun person to be close too. I religiously called you every night at 7 to make sure you were ok ever since your terrible fall. When I called you I often said Who calls you more than me. Your reply was a laugh or giggle then Nobody. You made the best baked beans. I know that Jackie will be happy to see you. Although I never said it I hope you know how much I Love You.
