“ *Dot and family,
I am so sorry for the loss of Pat. He will be missed greatly. I have so many fond memories of him. He always made me laugh. He was all about his sports. Every time I came home from college, OSU, we would talk about the team and give our coaching tips. I think he came down one time to a game with me while I was there. He loved going to those games. Then there would be the times he would walk his "baby" - Spanky. Man, he loved that dog. Pat was a character, very much unforgettable! You will be in my thoughts and prayers!*

The words of this Psalm of David reminds us that "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit." Our condolence to all of you.*
