

Perry Stout

April 4, 1937 - October 25, 2014

Perry Stout, 77, of Carrollton passed away Saturday evening October 25, 2014 in Salem, Ohio. A son of the late Charles J. and Edith Wade Stout, he was born April 4, 1937 near Bergholz, Ohio. Perry was a member of the Fraternal Order of Police and was a security specialist for Wackenhut Corp. He is survived by his son Charles Stout of Rootstown; daughter, Diane (Ron) Carson of Salem; three grandchildren, Rachel (Kyle) Balderson, Adam Carson, Matt Carson; and a great grandson, Weston Perry Balderson. Along with his parents he was preceded in death by his wife, Diane Patricia Stout, a brother and two sisters. In accordance with his wishes cremation took place and there will be no services.

Tribute Wall

MR

“ Dear Stout Family, My Wife and I are very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear love one. We want to share something comforting from the Bible. The Bible tells us God never wanted our love ones to die. (Romans5:12)(James1:13) He sent his Son Jesus to us so we could have everlasting life.(John 3:16)(John 5:28,29)This promise will soon be a reality. It is comforting to know that God will soon end all suffering on earth.(Psalms37:10,11,29)(Revelation21:4,5. We pray that you find peace and comfort in God's promises for the future.

Mr.&Mrs.Billings(Ministers) - January 29, 2015 at 01:07 PM

RS

“ Thoughts and prayers go out to a fine man's family. It is a tribute to Perry to have such good kids.

Ron Smyth - January 29, 2015 at 01:07 PM