“ My mom Wilma McBride, worked with Dena at Goodrich. That was over 60 years ago and they are still friends. I am Wilmas daughter and Dena and Ralph were my friends too. When Dena was pregant with Denise, I used to stay with her and Ralph on Arlington Rd. She taught me to bake, and Ralph would let me go out and play with the dogs. He showed me his collections and talked to me about the Sheriffs department. I loved staying weekends with them. We kept in touch over the years, and attended their 50th anniversary. Mom and I would visit them every couple years and they would serve lunch and Ralph loved to sit in his rocker and talk and talk. We had planned on going down this summer, but time didn't cooperate with us. Ralph loved his home and his family, and especially Dena. He was so proud of his hunting, guns, and his family. He was a kind man, and very friendly. He made me feel at home 50 years later. He will be missed by everyone who knew him. Rest in Peace Ralph. My condolences to Dena and the family. Ralph and Dena were the very first people my husband and I met the very day we signed the paperwork to complete the purchase of our home in Augusta Township. It seems Dena had a friend who was married to the uncle of the man from whom we bought our property! During a visit with Dena's friend, she mentioned that the nephew had sold the house to someone from "up north" near Cuyahoga falls and the man had some red cattle with big horns. Ralph immediately said that has to be Phil Urbank! Ralph and Dena drove straight over to see. Ralph walked to the pasture where Phil was planning his fences and I noticed this little lady sitting in the car in our driveway. I went out and introduced myself and she and I have been e-mail buddies ever since. We share the hobby of sewing for fun and enjoy each other very much. Ralph and Dena once lived in the Cuyahoga Falls area when Ralph was working from the Highway Patrol post there. The Urbank family is large and Ralph new them all. When the Urbank Family Reunions were held here at our home, Ralph and Dena were "adopted" as family and regularly attended our annual family reunions. Ralph will truly be missed by us!
