“ To Martha, Russ, and his wife and family - I knew Randy as our tech support through Graphic Enterprises at Gordon's Graphics in Malvern. He and I enjoyed friendly chitchat at the copier any time he was there to help us. I worked there many years and saw him as a reliable individual in his field. I'm sorry he's gone on. I'm sorry for your pain in saying goodbye. Love and best wishes to each of you. - Diana Yost. Malvern, Ohio

“ Randy and Lilly have been wonderful and caring neighbors. I remember all the sports activities we attended for our boys and they way Randy had a smile and encouraging word when he met you. He led a true Christian life. My prayers for Lilly are that God will support her and carry her through the next few days and months as he has me. Too many losses in our neighborhood.

“Randy was a father figure to me when I really needed it . When I attended Dellroy Nazarene Church He was my Teen Sunday School teacher and my Youth group leader we had many of laughs in his class and during youth group especially when we rocked in Rocking Chairs at Pastor Myers house for 24 hrs to help raise money for missions and our first Monday of each month rolling skating party in Midvale I was always afraid to skate but Randy always came and caught my hand and made sure we wouldn't fall the biggest thing that meant the world to me was on May 14th 1988 I had asked Randy to walk me down the aisle and place my hand into my husband's when Donnie and I got married Randy was proud to be the man to walk me down the aisle and I was so very touched by his love for me as also his wife Lilly who also was always there for me even on my wedding day I was blessed to wear the same wedding veil she wore when Randy and She were married

I lost touch with both Randy and Lilly over the yrs but I never stop loving them not did I never stop appreciating what they did for a trouble teen who was me many yrs ago

I know Randy is at peace and I know he was greeted in heaven by his loveones and some of his church family including Bruce Flanagan Dana Kutcher Barry Linder and so many more and I know when it's my time to go home to heaven He will be there to meet me as I enter the pearly gates until then I will hold on to the precious memories I have of Randy in my heart and I will thank Jesus for the many things Randy did for me when this troubled teenager needed a mentor and Jesus sent me Randy and his precious wife Lilly to be that mentor . My prayers are with all the Arborgast family I know how much Randy meant to all of you
