

Raymond C. Smith

August 15, 1967 - November 22, 2008

Raymond C. Smith, 41, of Carrollton died November 22, 2008. A son of Joan Smith and the late George C. Smith, he was born August 15, 1967 in Akron, Ohio. Raymond was a graduate of Carrollton High School and was employed as a welder and mechanic. Along with his mother, Joan, he is survived by: 2 Daughters: Alyssa and Andrea Smith of New Philadelphia, OH 1 Brother: Robert (Karen) Smith of Canton, OH 1 Sister: Cherie (Mike) King of Bowerston, OH And several nieces and nephews Friends and Family are invited to an open house on Saturday, November 29 from 12-3 p.m. at the home of his mother, Joan Smith, 810 Glory Road Carrollton, Ohio, to celebrate Raymond's life. In lieu of flowers the family wishes donations be made to The Carrollton Baptist Temple, 1211 Lincoln Ave. NW Carrollton, OH 44615. A private burial service will be held.

Tribute Wall

AE

“ We feel for your family and friends during this time of loss. I find comfort in the truth about Jesus he was no stranger to death while he was on earth. He felt the grief of losing people around him, and he was fully aware that he himself would die prematurely. (Matthew 17:22, 23) Evidently some months before Jesus was executed, his close friend Lazarus died. That event provides us with an insight into Jesus' view of death. The account shows that Jesus gave way to tears with dealing with his grief. The scriptures also give the promise of God that there will be a resurrection its found in John 5:28. May you find peace in comfort in the Bible. Kindest Regards,
Angela & Emilee

Angela & Emilee - January 29, 2015 at 01:09 PM