

Rick Grady

May 4, 1955 - September 2, 2023

In memory of Rick Grady.

Rick was known by many for his witty comments. He would always catch you off guard and pull a prank when needed.

In his younger years he dealt in farm equipment and always referred to himself as a big time operator!

“What do you mean?”, was one of Rick’s many quotes known by many in Carroll County. His latest comment he always repeated was, “Ain’t that something?” His wittiness and childish smile will be missed by many.

In accordance with Rick’s wishes no services will be held and his final resting place will be in Harlem Springs Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Rick’s name to Community Hospice, 716 Commercial Ave. SW, New Philadelphia, OH 44663.

Continue Onward My Friend.

“ Wish I could've known him. Always heard he as 'a character'. Sounds like my kind of people :-) May he rest in peace.

“ I met Rick Grady on a school bus. My parents bought a farm in Harlem Springs when I was going into 7th grade. I had an aisle seat on my first day on the school bus and when Rick got on the bus as a first grader, he kicked the ankle of everyone in an aisle seat as he made his way to the back of the bus, which made me understand why my seat mate gave me the aisle seat. Over the years, though, Rick and I became friends. Among other things, I learned he had a good heart. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ We went to high school together and he always called me Jim Tall. He kept me in stitches. I hope he didn't buzz Jesus when he got to Heaven. 😊 R.I.P.
