“ We are very sad to hear of the passing of Roy. I first met him playing basketball against him when I played for Augusta and he played for Kilgore. We later were teammates and close friends in both basketball and baseball for Carrollton. Then years later we coached against each other when our sons played baseball. Our sons were good friends and our daughters were extremely cose friends. We are blessed to have those memories. Our kids send their condolences as do we. Rest in peace good friend. “ Kind: the first word that comes to mind of this dear man. Something that speaks volumes about a man's character, is when you over here people talking about him and what a great guy he is. I was at one of my children's athletic events and heard Roy's name mentioned by the people sitting behind me. This piqued my curiosity and as I eavesdropped 🗨️, multiple stories were told amongst this group of people of Roy's genuine goodness.

His family can be proud that He was one who chose to Shine for Christ.”

I was deeply saddened to here of Roy's passing. I had the privilege of being coached by him for many years in Kilgore. I can recall the many times he would inform us that during our swing of the bat our heads were looking towards Germano. I'm forever grateful for the amount of time he spent coaching us as it gave us memories that we will never forget. He was a man. May you forever rest in peace.

Thoughts and prayers go out to all of his family.
