

Ruth Morgan

January 31, 1934 - July 10, 2018

Ruth V. Morgan, 84, of Amsterdam, passed away Tuesday afternoon July 10, 2018 at the Gables Care Center in Hopedale.

A daughter of the late Charles and Margaret Corcoran Starr, she was born January 31, 1934 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Ruth worked for over twenty years as a nurse's aide in various nursing homes and was a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church in Amsterdam.

Ruth is survived by three sons, William Morgan of Amsterdam, Kevin (Anne) Morgan of Virginia and Daniel Morgan of Connecticut; a daughter-in-law, Carol Morgan; four grandchildren, six great grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband William S. Morgan, sons Michael and Terrance, and five brothers, Harold, Charles, John, Ray and Harry, and two sisters, Mae Riley and Florence Schenk.

The family would like to thank the compassionate staff at Gables Care Center. A special thanks to Ruth's nephew Clyde Starr and his wife Toni for all of their support and caring during mom's time at Gables.

At the request of the family a private graveside service was held.

Tribute Wall

CT

“ Clyde And Toni lit a candle in memory of Ruth Morgan

Clyde and Toni - July 13, 2018 at 08:19 AM

CT

Aunt Ruthie we will miss you, especially your stories of the past and your laughter. You are at peace now with your loved ones that have passed before you. Love ya. Clyde and Toni.

Clyde and Toni - July 13, 2018 at 08:24 AM

MM

“ Mary Jo McConaughy lit a candle in memory of Ruth Morgan

Mary Jo McConaughy - July 12, 2018 at 07:20 PM

MM

“ We will miss you Aunt Ruthie. You were the last of the Starr Siblings. I hope there is a wonderful Starr reunion going on. You were always a kind and loving lady. May you be at peace. Love, Ralph and Mary Jo Starr McConaughy

Mary Jo McConaughy - July 12, 2018 at 07:18 PM

TS

“ Tom Starr lit a candle in memory of Ruth Morgan

Tom Starr - July 12, 2018 at 06:29 PM