

Samuel Kisha

March 20, 1927 - February 6, 2016

Samuel Kisha, beloved brother and uncle, fell asleep in the Lord on February 6 with his loving family by his side.

He was born on March 20, 1927 to John and Anna Kisha. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sister Mary and his brothers John, Michael, Peter, George, Joseph, Steve, Nick, Andrew, and Paul, and his lifelong friend, Barbara. He is survived by his brothers Theodore (Anna) and Alex, as well as many nieces and nephews.

Sam was an army veteran, having served in Germany during the Korean Conflict. Upon returning from the army, he worked at Weirton Steel. After retiring, Sam continued to work on his farm with Paul. Together, they tended to their cattle, gardened, and worked to make the farm a beautiful place upon the hill. After Paul passed away, Sam continued to tend to the farm as a gentleman farmer - it was kept pristine. He enjoyed star gazing, sitting on his front porch swing, and riding his tractors, especially when his great nieces and nephews would come to visit.

Sam was also an active member of All Saints Orthodox Church in Wolf Run, Ohio. He placed much joy, devotion, and time into the church. All Saints was his home away from home.

Services will be held Tuesday, February 9, 2016 at 10 a.m. in All Saints Orthodox Church with Fr. Evgeni Peykov officiating. Burial will follow in All Saints Cemetery with full military honors. Visitation will be Monday evening from 5-7 p.m. in Dodds Funeral Home with Parastas Services at 6:30 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Sam's name to All Saints Orthodox Church in Wolf Run, Ohio.

“ This, I believe is on a memorial plaque in Amsterdam. I read the story on the internet.

One of the memorial plaques has a heading referring to “a band of brothers.” Reading through the long list of names, you notice the same last name repeated several times. Alex, Andrew, George, Joseph, Nicholas, Paul and Samuel Kisha, all originally from Wolf Run, served in WWII at the same time.

I'm so happy that I got to spend some time with Uncle Sam this past summer. - Ted

“ *When I was little I used to sing in the choir with Paul. Sam always seemed so tall and a bit stern. As I grew up I realized he had a great smile and a hug at the ready every time I would return home. We always talked about the farm and I told him how I thought it was the prettiest farm in Wolf Run. You will be missed. Memory Eternal.
