“ My prayers go out for you all at this sad time. I am so glad I got to see Sara a few weeks ago.....I always gave her a kiss and told her I Loved her. I enjoyed our visits and I know she looked forward to our chats. If I didn't come for a few weeks she would call me and give me a hard time. When her hearing got worse she would tell me to bang real hard on the door so she would hear me. I will miss her.

“ My dear Florence, Frank and families, My heart was truly saddened when I read that Mom had passed. She's at rest but now you have to take of you too. My earliest remembrance of Mom and Dad and you is when you were so little and lived across the hall from my grandparents. Your Mom and Dad were so kind and helpful to them and they thought you were the cutest kids. We became good friends and always wished you all well.

God bless your memories and think remember to think of the good ones, that will get you through some tough times.

God bless you all as you go through the days ahead taking care of Mom's things. Please accept my love, deepest sympathy and prayers.
