

Sarah J. Ullom

January 14, 1964 - June 28, 2024

Sarah J. Ullom, 60, of Carrollton, formerly of Navarre, died Friday, June 28, 2024 at Mercy Medical Center in Canton, Ohio following a brief illness.

A daughter of the late Howard and Wanda (Long) Heinzman, she was born on January 14, 1964 in Canton.

Throughout her life, Sarah enjoyed playing Bingo and spending time with her family.

She is survived by two sons, Justin (Jen) Riegler and Clayton (Cassie) Riegler; grandson, Colton Riegler; two brothers, Ed (Amy) Heinzman and John Heinzman; two sisters, Sue Spaar, and Mary Johnson; and several nieces and nephews.

Along with her parents, Sarah was preceded in death by three brothers, Michael, Howard, and Gary Heinzman, and sister, Patricia Heinzman.

Per Sarah's wishes, there will be no formal services and cremation has taken place.

Tribute Wall

BW

“ I am devastated losing one of the best friends I've ever had. Sarah was so giving and kind to others. Even though her struggles were many she was always upbeat and happy. I will miss her very much.

Barb Wilson - July 11, 2024 at 01:38 PM

CS

“ On behalf of Centreville Village we would like to express our sincere condolences to Sarah's family. She had a good sense of humor and always had a smile on her face.
Her friends and caregivers there will miss her dearly.

Centreville staff - July 01, 2024 at 09:09 PM

BH

“ So very sorry to hear this. Missy was always such a sweet person. She will be missed.

Cousin Stanley Heinzman and Bonnie

Bonnie Heinzman - June 29, 2024 at 02:29 PM