“ Shirley and I had a lot in common---we married brothers and had the same mother-in-law. We teased and joked about this. I am not sure it was appreciated by our husbands or mother-in-law. Whenever we got together we got silly. She loved to laugh and was adventurous. She was fun. We say a prayer of thanks that her suffering is over and a prayer for comfort to her family who will now miss the wonderful person she was, wife, mother, grandmother, aunt, and sister-in-law. Our sympathy and love to her family.

“ Shirley was always cooking good food, whether it be for family or the church, and I remember how she and Tyler would make awesome buckeyes at Christmas together. She was always there for her family. May she now rest in peace.
