“ We are saddened beyond belief that we have lost TC. I have memories of him as “big brother” to Chris and Dan as we all grew up together on the outskirts of Carrollton. He ALWAYS kept his cars impeccably clean.... I remember many days of me riding my three wheeler to the Courtrights (to harass Dan and Chris) and there was TC in the driveway spit polishing his ride. I even shared an apartment in Canton with Dan and TC during the college years.... And he always kept us in line! :) The Courtrights are in our thoughts and prayers. I will always remember TC as a very, very good man. Love

We are all saddened by Tom's passing. We watched him battle with grace and dignity to stay with his family. Tom always had a smile and great conversation when I would visit. My favorite memory was him taking all of us girls to the Canfield fair. He will be deeply missed. He was a good grandpa and spoiled all the kids with love. I hope Missy and his family find the peace that Tom has now.
