“ Tina was my first neice. She was the sweetest, happiest, most compassionate and most beautiful joyful little girl. We spent many fun times together going to parks and movies and playing games. She loved her daddy and was always so proud of him. She especially enjoyed when her Daddy and Aunt Judy acted silly with her. In spite of all the adversities in her life as she grew older she still kept her sense of joy, enthusiasm and caring and compassion for others. She appreciated the beauty in nature and loved her special little doggies. My heart goes out to her husband and Ohio family at this unexpected loss as we grieve her loss and celebrate her life together, love forever, Aunt Judy
