

Vera I. Magee

January 21, 1930 - August 18, 2017

Vera I. Magee, 87, of Kilgore, passed away August 18, 2017 at Carroll Healthcare Center. She had worked at the Hoover Co. in North Canton and its successor, Maytag, for 55 years as an executive.

She is preceded in death by her parents, John A. and Emma Elnor Karns Magee; brother, Paul Magee; sister, Marjorie Heidy; and nephew, Bob Heidy. She is survived by nieces and nephews, Cindy and Rodger Roof of Carrollton, Rex and Brenda Magee of Kilgore and Bill Heidy of Scio; great nieces and nephews, Kelli (Roof) Sandefur, Kristin (Roof) Bartlow, Kayci (Roof) Robinson, Ryan Roof, John Magee, Luke Magee; and eight great nieces and nephews.

We called her "Aunt" but that word is inadequate for what she was to us. She gave unconditional love, demonstrating it by her generous gift of self. Her passing has left an enormous void in all our lives. We are so very thankful for wonderful memories and to have been blessed with our "Aunt Vera."

Vera was a lifelong member of Simmons Ridge Methodist Church/Bible Chapel until it closed, playing the piano every Sunday. She rests today in the arms of Jesus, her Savior.

A private graveside service by Hospice Chaplain Brian Sentken was held at Harlem Springs Cemetery. Funeral arrangements by Dodds Funeral Home.

Those wishing to remember Vera can pray for a cure for Alzheimers.

“ Vera was a very special lady loved by many. She was a great friend and we will miss her very much.

“ My sympathy to the Magee family in the loss of Vera. I worked at Hoovers with Vera for several years and kept in contact with her by Christmas and birthday cards. She was a special person. Could not make contact for sometime (and now I know why) and was sorry to hear of her Alzheimers. I lost my husband to Alzheimers four years ago - it is a terrible disease. Always had something in common as the Campbell family originated from Germano and most are buried in Kilgore.
