“ Vee was my beloved Aunt and loved her si much. I would spend time at their house and was so afraid of Jack and remembered getting behind Vee and asking if he was going to work. To me he was like a giant and would tease me because he knew I was afraid of him. It was such a shock when Debbie called me to let me know what a loss she was always a spit fire and on the go. She will be missed. My prayers and thoughts are with the family.
