“ I remember Bill when he lived behind my Uncles gas station on route 9 and when he moved out the road to "five points" and started the paving company.

Bill and Clyde used to spend a lot of time at Dad's skating rink.

The last time I saw Bill was while visiting in Carrollton several years ago and we stopped at the restaurant and he came over to the table to reminisce about "back in the day".

My most sincere condolences to the family and his close friends. Bill was a legend.
